Dear parents and guardians

I would like to inform you that I have accepted the post of Executive Headteacher for Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd and LA appointed Support Headteacher for Ysgol Gyfun Gwynllyw. These new responsibilities mean that I will share my time between the two schools each week. This is a great opportunity for us as a school to support another school during this academic year. We have been celebrating the high standards, systems and sound leadership of Llangynwyd over the years and will now it is a pleasure to assist Ysgol Gyfun Gwynllyw on its journey out of special measures.

As a result of my appointment, it will mean staffing changes for Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd. During this time the senior leadership team structure will look like this:

Meurig Jones: Executive Headteacher of Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd

Lisa Woodrow: Head of School for Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd

Catrin Evans: Deputy Headteacher of Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd

Meleri Jones: Deputy Headteacher of Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd

Internally appoint two Assistant Headteachers to Ysgol Gyfun Gymraeg Llangynwyd

Geraint Isaac: Chair of Governors

Garmon Davies: Vice Chair of Governors

Mrs Woodrow will therefore act as Head of school for Llangynwyd with responsibility for the day to day running of the school and be accountable for the work of the school in my absence. My roles will be strategic by working closely with the senior leadership teams and governors of both schools and co-formulating a clear vision and strategic direction for the two schools separately. However, on those days I am at Llangynwyd I will be carrying out my day to day duties as present.

For learners, parents and guardians, Llangynwyd's work will remain unchanged. This new partnership between the two schools is one that will strengthen Welsh-medium education in south Wales and ensure that there are strong standards and leadership across both schools.

I look forward to this new challenge and it is great to be able to continue my relationship with Llangynwyd and assist Gwynllyw on the school's journey.

Yours sincerely,

Meurig Jones
